The image shows two side-by-side screenshots of a mobile application interface. The left screenshot is in light mode, and the right is in dark mode. Both screens display the title 'Prometheus DE - Kapitel 2: Konsequenzen' by David Greenwitch and Mahanako. The left screen features a large book cover image, while the right screen has a smaller one. The right screen includes a menu with options: 'Beschreibung', 'Details', 'Attribute', 'Karte', and 'Verlauf'. At the bottom of the right screen, a navigation bar shows a compass icon and the text '537 km'. The top status bars show system information like 'SIM gesperrt', '11:06', and '61%' on the left, and various system icons and '11:05' on the right.
